The answers to the Nemo page from November on measuring were:

1. Lawrence Binyon Song
2. Henry James The Portrait of a Lady Part II, Chapter 44
3. Emily Dickinson Life, CXVI
4. William Wordsworth The Cave at Staffa
5. Oliver Goldsmith The Good-Natured Man Act 2
6. WB Yeats The Dawn

Congratulations to Ian Anderson, Martin Lukarevski and Henry Ricardo on tracking all of these down. This month we take another look at proof. The quotations are to be identified by reference to author and work. Solutions are invited to the Editor by 31st May 2017.

1. What is now proved was once only imagined.
2. He proves by algebra that Hamlet's grandson is Shakespeare's grandfather and that he himself is the ghost of his own father.
3. Life set me larger – problems –
Some I shall keep – to solve
Till Algebra is easier –
Or simpler proved – above –
