

1	Borka Tushevska Gavrilovikj Jordanka Galeva	Sustainable development in competition law  Sustainability of minority rights in the Macedonian case 	Competition Law Human rights, Political System	BORKA TUSHEVSKA GAVRILOVOVIKJ is Associate professor at the Department of Business Law, Faculty of Law at University Goce Delcev in Stip. Tushevska Gavrilovovikj has a PhD in Business law obtained at the Faculty of Law 'Iustinianus Primus', University Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. In her professional career, she has participated and implemented several scientific and professional projects in the field of business and international law. As Head of the Centre for Lifelong Learning, she has also participated in projects from several other areas that reach private and public law. In the last few years, the focus of her research has been addressed to issues concerning sustainable development and sustainability in competition law as well as international trade law. EMAIL: borka.tusevska@ugd.edu.mk ORDANKA GALEVA holds a PhD in International Cooperation and Sustainable Development Policies from University of Bologna in consortium with University of Pisa, Italy. She received her M.A in Economic of cooperation, M.A. in Politology and B.A. in Political Science "Roberto Ruffilli" in Forli, University of Bologna. During her stay in Italy, she worked as linguistic and social mediator. She is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev, Stip. Her current research is focused on geopolitics, multiculturalism, and minority rights. She is the author of numerous scientific papers and she has participated in reserach projects and international conferences. EMAIL: jordanka.galeva@ugd.edu.mk
2	Biljana Todorova + Jakab Nóra	Sustainable development through decent work of young people  	Labor Law	Nóra Jakab Nora.jakab@uni-miskolc.hu Full professor. Publications: https://vm.mtmt.hu//search/slist.php?nwi=1&initd=1&ty_on=1&url_on=1&cite_type=2&orderby=3D1a&location=mtmt&stn=1&AuthorID=10022582 BILJANA TODOROVA, PhD, is an Associate Professor of Social Security Law at the Faculty of Law, University „Goce Delcev“- Stip, Republic of North Macedonia. She teaches Environmental law, Labor Law, Social Security Law, and International Labour Law. She has published a few books and a range of articles in the area of Labour Law and Social Security Law. She has research experience in research projects, some of them are: researcher in project „EDUCATION4PROGRESS: regional cooperation to improve EU law teaching“, implemented by the SEELS Network and financially supported by the Western Balkans Fund 2018; researcher in the project, The European Family Support Network-A bottom-up, evidence-based and multidisciplinary approach” 2019 – 2023. Her research focuses on domestic and international labour law and policy, decisions, and the roles of governments in promoting social and economic improvement on the labour market in the era of globalization. She has participated in the drafting of national labour legislation. EMAIL: biljana.todorova@ugd.edu.mk

3	Elena Maksimova Udvarhelyi Bence (06.14.)	Preventing violence against women and girls to achieve gender equality as sustainable development goal  	Criminal Law and Human Rights	Bence Udvarhelyi : udvarhelyi.bence@gmail.com [01/02/2021 – Current] Assistant professor University of Miskolc, Faculty of Law, Department of Criminal Law and Criminology. Main activities and responsibilities: Teaching the following courses: Criminal Law I-IV, Criminal Law Seminar I-IV, European Criminal Law and Cooperation in the Field of Business Related Crimes, Fight against money laundering in Europe Participation in international projects - 2021-2022 - member and coordinator of the project „Certain questions of the external, internal and criminal investigation of the criminal offences affecting the financial interests of the European Union (fraud, corruption, money laundering and other illegal activities against the financial interests of the EU) with special focus on the role of OLAF, EPPO, Eurojust and Europol” (EUIINVESTIGUNIMISKOLC – 101015428) within the framework of the HERCULE III (2014-2020) programme - 2020-2023 - member of the Humboldt-Institutpartnerschaftsprojekt „Zur Systematisierung der strafrechtlichen Verantwortung von und in Unternehmen” supported by the Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung - 2018-2019 - member and coordinator of the project „Criminal law protection of the financial interests of the EU – Focusing on money laundering, tax fraud, corruption and on criminal compliance in the national legal systems with reference to cybercrime” (HUUNIMISKOLCPFI – 786253) within the framework of the HERCULE III (2014-2020) programme - 2016-2018 - member of the project „Strengthening Juvenile Justice Systems in the counterterrorism context: capacity - building and peer learning among stakeholders” supported by the European Commission within the framework of „Action grants to support judicial cooperation in criminal matters relating to the criminal justice response to terrorism and violent radicalisation” (JUST/2015/JCOO/AG/TERR) Publication activity: https://m2.mtmt.hu/gui2/?type=authors&mode=browse&sel=authors10029341 ELENA MAKSIMOVA, assistant professor in Criminal Law and Criminology, and Vice - Dean for education at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev – Stip. Maksimova has finished her Bachelor, LL.M and PhD Studies at the Faculty of Law “Iustinianus Primus”, St. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. In 2018 she has defended her doctoral thesis entitled "Criminality of women in the period 2005-2015, with accent on the victimological aspects" at the same faculty. From 2012 is working as a teaching assistant at Faculty of Law, Goce Delcev University in Stip, Republic of Macedonia, in the criminal law field. In February 2019 she was promoted to Assistant Professor at the same Faculty. In September 2019, she has been nominated for Vice-Dean for education. Elena is also a trainer of students for moot court competition in practical ECHR knowledge and European Convention of Human Rights. Elena Maksimova has participated in conferences, seminars and training courses. She has also been included in projects from the field of Criminal law, EU law, Migration and asylum, and sustainable development, and has different publications, both authored or coauthored in national and international journals. EMAIL: elena.ivanova@ugd.edu.mk
---	---	---	--------------------------------------	---

4	Olga Koshevaliska Jánosi Andrea	Ethnic and racial profiling in criminal cases (as part of non-discrimination)  	Criminal Law and Human Rights	Andrea Jánosi : Contact: andrea.janosi@uni-miskolc.hu Teaching activity: 2021.09.01. – Associate professor 2014. 09. 01. – 2021. 08. 31. Assistant professor 2008. 08. 15.– 2014. 08. 31. Professor assistant Teaching subjects: criminal procedural law, criminalistics Studies: 2013. – Doctoral/PhD degree, Deák Ferenc Doctoral School, University of Miskolc PhD thesis: Criminal procedural law aspect of free movement of persons with special regard to the question of proof 2006-2009. – Deák Ferenc Doctoral School, University of Miskolc 2007-2012. – economist, Faculty of Economics, Finance-Accounting specialization, University of Miskolc, (BA degree) 2002-2007. – sociologist, Faculty of Arts, University of Miskolc (MA degree) 2001– 2006. – lawyer, Faculty of Law, University of Miskolc, (summa cum laude degree) Research topics: Criminal procedural law, criminalistics, judicial cooperation in criminal matters, data management for law enforcement purposes in the European Union Publication activity: https://m2.mtmt.hu/gui2/?type=authors&mode=browse&sel=authors10029341 OLGA KOSHEVALISKA is associate professor in Criminal law at the Department of Criminal Law, and she is Dean of the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev, Stip. Koshevaliska has finished her Bachelor, LL.M and PhD Studies at the Faculty of Law “Iustinianus Primus”, St. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. The title of her PhD thesis is Privacy vs. Security when exchanging personal data in criminal matters in the European Union. She has attended many study visits and trainings home and abroad and she participates in different national and international research projects. She has been involved in the following projects - Migration and Asylum Policies System (MAPS), New Borderlands in Europe (BORDEURS), Protecting HUMAN SEcurity with non-state-actors in the MARitime and CYber SPace (HUMARCYSACE). She also participates in the activities of the Jean Monnet Module EU – Western Balkans: Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs. Koshevaliska is also a national expert in projects regarding juvenile justice, mediation, and crimes against the environment. Her interest is in the criminal law area, international criminal law, asylum policy and juvenile justice, and her latest research works focus on the criminal legal protection of the right to a healthy environment. olga.koshevaliska@ugd.edu.mk olga.kosevaliska@ugd.edu.mk
5	Milica Shutova Kriston Edit	Children's right to a healthy environment  	Civil Law	Edit Kriston e-mail: edit.kriston@uni-miskolc.hu Work experience: 2017-2018 consultant, Curia of Hungary (private law council II. – family law cases) 2017-2022 assistant research fellow, University of Miskolc, Faculty of Law, Civil Law Department 2022- assistant lecturer, University of Miskolc, Faculty of Law, Institution of Private Law, Department of Civil Law 2021-2022 legal adviser, University of Miskolc, Department of Law 2023- consultant, Curia of Hungary (private law council I.-II. – family law cases) Participation in professional public life: 2014 member of Hungarian Association of PhD Students, Department of Legal Sciences 2015 – 2016 secretary of Hungarian Association of PhD Students, Department of Legal Sciences 2016 – vice-president of Hungarian Association of PhD Students, Department of Legal Sciences 2017 – member of Association of Magánjogot Oktatók Egyesülete 2017 – member of Hungarian Academy of Sciences Regional Committee of Miskolc Expert Committee of Civil Law Sciences 2017 – member of Modern Hungarian Civil Law and European Civil Law Research Centre (belongs to of Faculty of Law University of Miskolc) 2021 – member of Hungarian Association of PhD Students, Department of ALUMNI 2021 – Hungarian Academy of Sciences – member of public body 2023 – Member of International Society of Family Law Research area: family law, contract law, private law Research topic: Contractual freedom in family property contracts; family property, child protection, children right (primarily hungarian substantive law)

				List of presentations and publications: https://m2.mtmt.hu/gui2/?type=authors&mode=browse&sel=10050964 MILICA SUTOVA is Associate professor at the Department of Civil Law, Faculty of Law at University Goce Delcev, Stip. She has completed her postgraduate and PhD in the field of civil law at the Faculty of Law "Iustianianus Primus" at the University of St. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. In 2011 she passed the judicial exam and in 2014 the notary exam. She has published scientific and professional articles and papers in the field of civil law and intellectual property law. Sutova has participated in several scientific research and application projects, as well as in scientific conferences. Her contribution to science is particularly focused on civil matters, with a focus on issues: children's rights in court proceedings vis-à-vis European regulation, intellectual property rights, exercise of parental rights after divorce, child as a party to litigation, etc. EMAIL: milica.sutova@ugd.edu.mk
6	Ana Nikodinovska Krstevska Takács Nikoletta  	Tackling sustainability in EU's policy in asylum and migration	EU Asylum and Migration Law and Policy	Nikoletta Takács orangeone21@gmail.com Nikolett Takács is a PhD student at the University of Miskolc at the Department for International Law. Her research area is Migration and Human Rights Law with particular attention to matters concerning children. She analyses the topics of detention and the prevalence of the best interest of the child at the international level, placing a strong emphasis on the importance of ECHR case law. She attended the Regional Academy on the United Nations where the focus of her studies was on the Global Compact for Migration and its relevance for civil society. She carried out research as a visiting fellow at the University of Ghent, Migration Law Research Group. She worked as an intern at the National Directorate-General for Aliens Policing in Hungary. ANA NIKODINOVSKA KRSTEVSKA has finished BA and MA studies in Italy (Orientale – Napoli and Alma Mater – Bologna), and she has attained her PhD in Studies for European integrations at the University Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. She is a coordinator for the University Goce Delcev – Stip in two Jean Monnet projects in matter of asylum and migration and EU Foreign policy (MAPS and BORDEURS), and she is also the coordinator of the activities for the Goce Delcev University in the Module Jean Monnet EU – Western Balkans: Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs, and she is part of the Team Chair of the Jean Monnet Chair in Promoting Public Awareness on Enlargement Policy, EU Values and the Western Balkans' Accession, conducted by prof Teresa Russo, University of Salerno, Italy (2023-2025). In the field of Sustainable development, Ana Nikodinovska Krstevska has been coordinator of the international project "The concept of sustainable development in law and policies", conducted by the Faculty of Law together with the University of Miskolc. Her current research is focused on European asylum and migration policies vis-à-vis national approaches of Western Balkan states, with specific attention to cooperation in migration, prevention, and combat of illegal migration, outsourcing and externalization of European security towards third countries and sustainability of migration and asylum policies. Nikodinovska Krstevska is Head of the Center for Analysis of Law and Policies at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev, Stip. EMAIL: ana.nikodinovska@ugd.edu.mk
7	Jakab Nóra + Grúzia	Social sustainability	background - social law, labour law	Nóra Jakab Nora.jakab@uni-miskolc.hu Full professor. Publications: https://vm.mtmt.hu/search/slist.php?nwi=1&initd=1&ty_on=1&url_on=1&cite_type=2&orderby=3D1a&location=mtmt&stn=1&AuthorID=10022582 Gruzia: ?
8	Gábor Mélypataki + Doga Sariipek	Pension system	social law	Assoc. Prof. Dr. Doğa Başar Sariipek is a faculty member at Kocaeli University, Faculty of Political Sciences, Department of Labor Economics and Industrial Relations. After completing his PhD in social policy in 2012, he worked as a post-doc researcher at the University of Bath in the UK. During his doctoral studies, he was a visiting professor at Kassel University in Germany. Dr. Sariipek's research interests are mainly in the field of social policy, with a special focus on welfare theory and the welfare state, poverty and income distribution. sariipek@kocaeli.edu.tr

			Gábor Mélypataki PhD, Associate Professor at the Institute of Civil Sciences, Faculty of Law and Political Sciences, University of Miskolc, Hungary since September 2012. He graduated in law from the University of Miskolc in 2009. Afterwards he became a PhD student and then a full-time lecturer at the above mentioned institution. Since the beginning, his research has focused on the legal relations of civil service law, mainly from a labour law perspective. A significant milestone in the synthesis of his findings was the defence of his PhD thesis on the subject in June 2016. In addition to public service law, his interests also include digitalisation, the gig economy and the application of artificial intelligence in labour law, as well as central issues of social law on state responsibility. Gabor.melypataki@uni-miskolc.hu
Jordanka Galeva	Sustainability of minority rights in the Macedonian case 	Human rights, Political System	ORDANKA GALEVA holds a PhD in International Cooperation and Sustainable Development Policies from University of Bologna in consortium with University of Pisa, Italy. She received her M.A in Economic of cooperation, M.A. in Politology and B.A. in Political Science “Roberto Ruffilli” in Forli, University of Bologna. During her stay in Italy, she worked as linguistic and social mediator. She is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev, Stip. Her current research is focused on geopolitics, multiculturalism, and minority rights. She is the author of numerous scientific papers and she has participated in reserach projects and international conferences. EMAIL: jordanka.galeva@ugd.edu.mk