

2023.10.17.

CET. 16.P.M.-18.P.M.

TOPIC: SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN COMPETITION LAW; SUSTAINABILITY OF MINORITY RIGHTS IN THE MACEDONIAN CASE

PRESENTERS:

Borka Tushevska Gavrilovikj

BORKA TUSHEVSKA GAVRILOVOVIKJ is Associate professor at the Department of Business Law, Faculty of Law at University Goce Delcev in Stip. Tushevska Gavrilovovikj has a PhD in Business law obtained at the Faculty of Law 'Iustinianus Primus', University Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. In her professional career, she has participated and implemented several scientific and professional projects in the field of business and international law. As Head of the Centre for Lifelong Learning, she has also participated in projects from several other areas that reach private and public law. In the last few years, the focus of her research has been addressed to issues concerning sustainable development and sustainability in competition law as well as international trade law.
EMAIL: borka.tusevska@ugd.edu.mk

Jordanka Galeva

JORDANKA GALEVA holds a PhD in International Cooperation and Sustainable Development Policies from University of Bologna in consortium with University of Pisa, Italy. She received her M.A in Economic of cooperation, M.A. in Politology and B.A. in Political Science from the Faculty of Political Science "Roberto Ruffilli" in Forli, University of Bologna. During her stay in Italy, she worked as linguistic and social mediator. She is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev, Stip. Her current research is focused on geopolitics, multiculturalism, and minority rights. She is the author of numerous scientific papers and she has participated in reserach projects and international conferences.
EMAIL: jordanka.galeva@ugd.edu.mk