

Jean Monnet Module for European Monetary Law and Faculty of Law University of Niš is organizing an international scientific conference:

"The Influence of European Integration on the Development of Monetary Law"

30-31 May 2023

Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia (online via the ZOOM platform)

30 May Opening the Conference

08.45-09.00h Welcome speech and greetings

Prof. Dr. Nebojša Raičević, Dean of the Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia,

Prof. Dr. Marko Dimitrijević, Jean Monnet Module for European Monetary Law Academic Coordinator

Keynote Speakers:

09.00-09.40h Prof. Dr. Chiara Zilioli, Director General of the Legal Service of the European Central Bank, Professor at the J.W. Goethe University-Frankfurt and Chair of the Committee on International Monetary Law of the International Law Association

"The High Integration and the Double Nature of Central Banks within the Eurosystem in the Jurisprudence of the ECJ"

09.40-10.10h Prof. Dr. Christos Gortsos, Full Professor, National Kapodistrian University of Athens Law School, and Visiting Scholar at the University of Zurich

"The Multiple Tasks of the ECB and Their Exercise within the Various EU Systems and Mechanisms"

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

SESSION 1 Moderator: Prof. Dr. Marko Dimitrijević

10.15-10.30h Prof. dr Srdjan Golubović, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia, Prof. dr Marko Dimitrijević, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia

“Monetary Law as an Independent and Positive Legal Discipline in Serbian Academia”

10.30-10.45h Prof. Dr. Tatjana Jovanić, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Belgrade, The Republic of Serbia

“Climate Change Recognition by Central Banks: Emerging Strategies and Policy Tools”

10.45-11.00h Ivana Parać Vukomanović, Croatian National Bank,

Prof. Dr. Ivana Bajakić, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Zagreb, The Republic of Croatia,

Prof. dr Marta Božina Beroš, Full Professor, “Juraj Dobrila” University of Pula, Faculty of Economics and Tourism, The Republic of Croatia

“The Euro as Means of Payment in Croatia: An Assessment of Economic and Legislative Milestones”

11.00-11.15h Prof. Dr. Savina Mihaylova - Goleminova, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, Director, Master’s Program “Economics & Management of Public Resources” Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridsky", The Republic of Bulgaria

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

“Challenges and Opportunities Facing Bulgaria on the Way to the Eurozone”

11.15-11.30h Prof. Dr. Jasmina Labudović Stanković, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Kragujevac, The Republic of Serbia

“Independent Central Bank between Price and Financial Stability”

11.30-11.45h Prof. Dr. Jovan Zafiroski, Full Professor, Faculty of Law "Iustinianus Primus", University “St. Cyril and Methodius” in Skopje, The Republic of North Macedonia

“Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs) and (R)evolution of Money”

11.45-12.00h Prof. Dr. Mirjana Radović, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Belgrade, The Republic of Serbia

“Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs)”

12.00-12.15h Prof. Dr. Jadranka Djurović Todorović, Full Professor, Faculty of Economics University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia

“The Effects of Monetary and Fiscal Policies on Economic Growth: Some Implications for Post-COVID19”

12.15-12.30h Prof. Dr. Predrag Cvetković, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia

“Tokenization as the Legal Phenomenon: Determinants and Features”

Questions and Answers

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

12.30-12.45h Coffey Brake

SESSION 2 Moderator: Prof. Dr. Marko Dimitrijević

12.45-13.00h Prof. Dr. Maja Nastić, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia
„European Parliament's Monetary Dialogue with the European Central Bank”

13.00-13.15h Prof. Dr. Kristina Misheva, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University “Goce Delčev” in Shtip, The Republic of North Macedonia
“The Challenges of the Macedonian Tax System According to the EU Recommendations and EU Tax Rules”

13.15-13.30h Prof. Dr. Mimora Kostić, Full Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia
“Green Central Banking due to Green Agenda in Serbia - An Issue to Develop Renewed Approach to General Victimology”

12.45-12.55h Mr Jovana Despenić, National Bank of Serbia
“Challenges of the Full Liberalization of Capital Movements for the Republic of Serbia in the Current European Accession Climate”

13.30-13.45h Dr. Žarko Dimitrijević, Consultant and Public Enforcement Agent, Niš, The Republic of Serbia, Ksenija Dimitrijević, Lawyer, Law Office, Niš, The Republic of Serbia

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

“Legal Protection of VR Gamers on the Virtual Accessories Market”

13.45-14.00h Mr Aleksandar Mihajlović, State Secretary Office for Public Policies, The Republic of Serbia

“Public Policy and Regulatory Impact Assessment in the Serbian Legal Framework”

14.00-14.15h Prof. Dr. Andjelija Tasić, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia

“Gender Issues and the Domain of Money in the Republic of Serbia”

14.15-14.30h Prof. Dr. Marija Ampovska, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University “Goce Delčev” in Shtip, The Republic of North Macedonia

“Prospectus Liability in EU: An Overview of Existing Legal Regimes”

14.30-14.45h Prof. dr Mihajlo Cvetković, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law University of Niš, The Republic of Serbia

“Crypto-Assets as an Object of Contractual Obligation According to Markets in Crypto-Assets (MiCa) Regulation”

14.45-15.00h Concluding Remarks and Conference Closing

31 May 10.00-12.00 Organizing Committee Meeting and Discussion

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

