Understanding Hate Crimes

Hate crimes are criminal acts motivated by bias or prejudice against a person's identity (e.g., race, religion, gender, sexual orientation)

Your honor, how can it be considered a 'hate crime' if my client loved doing it

North Macedonia case - Several changes of the legal framework – most important the amendments in 2018 & 2020

- “A hate crime expressly provided by the provisions of this Code is considered a criminal offense against a natural or legal person and related persons or property committed in whole or in part due to a real or presumed (imagined, conceived) characteristic or connection of the person on grounds of race, skin color, nationality, ethnicity, religion or belief, mental or physical disability, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation and political belief.”

Collecting data for hate crime cases & addressing HC

Problem – the law enforcements do not always check the box for hate crime in every hate crime case – independently of the fact - if they are not trained to recognize hate crime

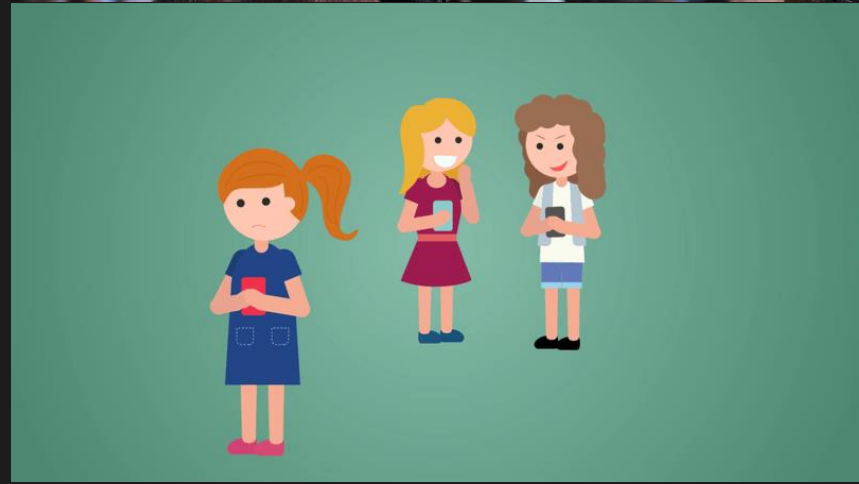

RACISM

Connection to Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

How Hate Crimes Affect SDGs?

Hate crimes & SDG's

According to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, “sustainable development cannot be realised without peace and security for everyone; and peace and security will be at risk without sustainable development”

MIGRANT CRISIS WILL KILL OFF EU

Even France's PM says Europe is on brink of disaster

By David Maddox Political Reporter
THE EU could be killed off by the migrant crisis engulfing Europe, the French Prime Minister admitted yesterday.
Manuel Valls became the first senior EU politician to admit that the dream of ever closer integration is falling apart.
 His remarks revive the Daily Express's crusade to get Britain out of Europe as we can control our own affairs.
 And they were seized on by commentators as proof that the "only way" in the 16-word statement to turn the tide.
 Mr Valls was speaking as the crisis continued yesterday with dozens more migrants from North Africa drowned trying to reach sanctuary in Greece. Thousands claiming to be Syrian asylum seekers played a leading role in the atrocious

MIGRANTS TAKE ALL NEW JOBS IN BRITAIN

They go to the front of the housing queue

By Tom Whitehead

that foreign workers filled all the extra 620,000 jobs which were created during those four years.
 The revelations in a severe embarrassment for Gordon Brown and make a mockery of his recent pledge to create "British jobs for British workers". The Prime Minister's discomfort deepened when an investigation was launched into how white Britons are being left behind in the housing queue.
 The damaging figure emerged just three days after ministers twice had to revise statistics on the number of foreign workers said to have created 700,000 jobs for British

Bulgaria's vigilante migrant 'hunter'

© 30 March 2016

By Matthew Brunwasser
Yambol, Bulgaria

A Bulgarian trader in spare parts for buses has become a national celebrity after starting to patrol the Turkish border "hunting" for migrants. Many Bulgarians applaud his vigilante initiative, though others are deeply troubled.

Xenophobic displays – great part of the public discourse

The media started to move in a very dangerous direction presenting the migrants, refugees, and asylum seekers as the next criminals at large – bullies, terrorist, sexual offenders, painting a picture that societies with large number of migrants, refugees and asylum seekers will be the next in line for threats to the public safety, national security, national identity, violence ..
